National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

Bryce Jordan Center Information

Dear family and friends,

The Penn State Smeal College of Business welcomes you to its spring 2023 commencement ceremony.

A host of people at Smeal and Penn State have helped guide this class on its journey toward academic achievement, personal discovery, and growth. That path wasn't always straight forward. These graduates needed to navigate a pandemic on their road to graduation. In spite of that, their accomplishments were many and varied. We are proud of the perseverance they displayed in reaching their destination.

Today marks the end of undergraduate education at Penn State and Smeal for these graduates. It also presents the start of opportunities to apply the knowledge they have gained to assure a promising future. When these students turn their tassels, they will officially become college graduates.

We know that with the guidance, love, and support of all of you who will be watching today, our graduates will transition to their post-graduate careers with honor and integrity while upholding our Penn State values.

As their professional careers unfold, our graduates should know that Penn State Smeal remains committed to their future success and is prepared to partner with them for professional development and lifelong learning.

On behalf of Penn State and the Smeal College of Business, thank you for the role each of you has played in the lives of these new Penn State alumni.

Congratulations to the class of 2023!

Best regards,

Charles H. Whiteman
John and Karen Arnold Dean, Smeal College of Business

Commencement Information

To Our Guests

Commencement, the solemn but joyful recognition of the graduates' years of study, is an important occasion to the University, its faculty, staff, and students. All guests and participants are requested to avoid unnecessary conversation or moving about during the exercises.

Only authorized press and University photographers are permitted on the floor to take pictures once the exercises are in progress.

When the processional party enters at the beginning of the ceremony, the audience rises. They remain standing until all members of the platform party have taken their places on the platform and during the singing of the National Anthem.

Following the singing of the Alma Mater, there is a recessional. The audience is requested to remain seated during this period.

We welcome you to the commencement exercises for baccalaureate degree candidates.

Academic Procession

The Mace, which symbolizes the President's authority, is carried at the head of the academic procession by a University Marshal. It was carved from a newel post saved from the original Old Main (which was rebuilt in 1929).

Academic Dress

Academic dress had its beginning in the Middle Ages. When the English universities were taking form in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, the scholars were also clerics and adopted robes similar to those of their monastic orders. Caps were a necessity in the drafty buildings, and capes with hoods attached were needed for warmth. The hood was selected by these early scholars as the article to be made distinctive for the various degrees by its color, trimming, and binding. As the universities gradually passed from the control of these ecclesiastics, costumes took on brighter hues.

The use of academic costume in the United States has been continuous since the colonial times.

A uniform system was not widespread, however, until about 1895 when the well-defined code of the Intercollegiate Commission was adopted by nearly all institutions of higher learning.

Gowns worn by those in the procession vary according to the degree held. Although the gown is more frequently black for academic degrees, certain universities have authorized the use of colored gowns. The academic gown has short or regular sleeves for the bachelor's degree, pointed sleeves for the master's degree, and round full sleeves for the doctor's degree. There are no trimmings on the bachelor's or master's gowns, but the doctor's gown is faced in the front with black velvet and has three bars of the same material across the sleeves. In some cases, the color of this velvet relates to the field in which the degree is granted.

Hoods are not usually worn by recipients of the bachelor's degree. The hood, the most distinctive feature of the American code, varies in length according to the type of degree held and is lined with the official colors of the institution conferring the degree. The velvet border or edging of the hood indicates the character of the degree it represents: blue – philosophy; light blue – education; brown – fine arts; blue violet – architecture; copper – economics; drab – business administration; golden yellow – science; green – medicine; sage green – physical education; orange – engineering; pink – music; russet – forestry; white – arts, letters, and humanities.

The cap is usually square and is the same for all degrees. The standard tassel is black, but the doctor's cap may have a gold tassel. The standard cap is the mortarboard, usually the color of the gown. Undergraduates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap until the moment the degree is conferred, and then it is transferred to the left side.

About Our Commencement Speaker

Darrell K. Williams

President, Hampton University

Lieutenant General, United States Army (retired)

Darrell K. Williams, a 1991 Smeal College of Business graduate with an MBA degree in logistics, will be the college's spring 2023 commencement speaker.

President Williams holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Hampton Institute (now University); a master of military arts and science from the Army Combined and General Staff College in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; and a master's in national security strategy from the National War College, Fort McNair, Washington, D.C.

In his more than 37 years of military service, Williams engaged in global supply chain management, executive leadership, education and training, security assistance, financial management, public speaking, and international risk management.

As director of the U.S. Department of Defense's Agency for Global Logistics, he led more than 26,000 people, generated more than $40 billion in annual revenue, and managed nine supply chains.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Williams' organization provided more than $1.2 billion of personal protective equipment support to the military services and other agencies of the federal government such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Williams has lived in and provided logistics support throughout the continental United States and served more than 11 years in Europe, Asia, and the Middle East.

After his decorated military service, Williams transitioned to the private sector with Leidos, a leading information technology, engineering, and science company. At Leidos, Williams served as vice president of its Defense Group and then vice president and managing director of its United Kingdom Logistics Division and program director of Leidos' Logistics Commodities and Services Transformation initiative.

He now serves as the 13th president of Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia.

Baccalaureate Degree Candidates

Program Notes

Scholastic Distinction: Distinction is conferred on graduates who have completed the required number of credits at the University and who are in the top 12 percent of their graduating class in their colleges. The 12 percent is divided into 2 percent "SUMMA CUM LAUDE," 4 percent "MAGNA CUM LAUDE," 6 percent "CUM LAUDE." Distinction are noted with numbers: 1 = Summa Cum Laude, 2 = Magna Cum Laude, 3 = Cum Laude.

Schreyer Scholars: The Schreyer Honors College selects students who exhibit the promise of fulfilling academic excellence with integrity, building a global perspective, and pursuing civic engagement and leadership. To graduate with honors, Schreyer Scholars must maintain a record of good academic standing, complete 35 credits of honors courses, and submit a thesis. Students graduating with honors are highlighted in bold print.

The Sapphire Leadership Academic Program: Selected for their academic excellence and leadership potential, Sapphire students demonstrate a commitment to student engagement and professional development both in and out of the classroom. Sapphire Leadership Program students are shown in blue.

Military Commission: Students who have satisfactorily completed the advanced course in military, naval, or air science may be granted commissions upon graduation. Military and air science graduates are commissioned as second lieutenants; naval science graduates may be commissioned as ensigns in the Navy or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps.

PLEASE NOTE: This is an unofficial list of students who indicated an intent to graduate for the spring semester. The final list of graduates for the program was pulled on March 16, 2023. Students who indicated their intent to graduate after that date may not be listed.

Subject to completion of all degree requirements, degrees will be conferred as indicated upon the individuals listed herein and upon such others as may meet the requirements. Congratulations on your achievements!

About Penn State

Penn State, founded in 1855, is the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's sole land-grant institution and its largest public university. Penn State's land-grant mission embraces teaching, research, and public service to support the citizens of the Commonwealth, collaborating with industrial, educational, and agricultural partners to create, disseminate, integrate, and apply knowledge that is valuable to society.

Today, Penn State awards more associate, baccalaureate, and graduate degrees than any other institution in the Commonwealth. Graduates of the University join a family of more than 760,000 alumni. The Penn State Alumni Association—the largest dues-paying organization of its kind—helps Penn Staters stay connected with each other and the University through a network of more than 280 chapters and other affiliated groups in all 50 states and more than 40 foreign countries.

Smeal College of Business History

Milton S. Eisenhower assumed the presidency of Penn State in 1950 with a simple mandate: build an institution that merits national recognition. The 1953 formation of an autonomous school of business, the offspring of the Commerce and Finance Department in Liberal Arts, was a step in that direction.

More than 70 years after its founding, Eisenhower's vision for the future has become reality in the Smeal College of Business. Over seven decades, the college has advanced steadily, earning a place among the national and international leaders of business education. Developments such as the introduction of the residential MBA Program in the late 1950s and the launch of Penn State Executive Programs—which helped solidify the college's partnerships with the business community—to an expanding portfolio of online and residential professional graduate programs signal Smeal's ongoing commitment to preparing graduates for what's ahead. Today, the college offers highly ranked undergraduate, graduate, doctoral, and executive education opportunities ranging from residential to online delivery to more than 6,000 students.

Smeal's connection to its own alumni base has also grown and flourished during its history. One of the most enduring alumni connections was forged in 1990 with the naming of the college for Mary Jean and Frank P. Smeal '42/'42, two of Penn State's most generous benefactors. Their contributions created five endowed chairs within the college as well as a separate endowment for program excellence.

The Smeal Alumni Network

With more than 90,000 Smeal alumni around the globe, our graduates are launching startups and leading Fortune 100 companies. From entry-level positions to c-suite executives, Smeal graduates take an innovative approach to business while holding to the highest ethical standards. The college encourages alumni to stay connected through communications and social media; to take advantage of events, Alumni Clubs, and Alumni Career Services; and to consider volunteer and giving opportunities.
