National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

To Our Guests

We welcome you to the commencement exercises for baccalaureate and associate degree graduates.

Commencement is both a solemn and joyful ceremony — a recognition of the graduates' years of study, and an important occasion for the University and its faculty, staff and students, as well as their families. In recognition of this solemnity, guests are politely requested to refrain from conversation or moving from their seats while the ceremony is underway. Please note that only authorized press and University photographers are permitted on the floor once the ceremony begins.

Audience members who are able to do so are asked to rise when the processional party enters at the beginning of the ceremony, and to remain standing until all members have taken their place on the platform and the singing of the national anthem is concluded.

Please withhold applause during the presentation of individual candidates. This is to help ensure that the names of all graduates can be clearly heard throughout the ceremony. However, audience members are encouraged to applaud after all graduates have been recognized.

After the recognition of graduates, there will be a singing of the Penn State Alma Mater followed by a recessional. Audience members are asked to remain seated until the recessional is concluded.

Thank you for joining us on this special day, and congratulations to the newest Penn State alumni and their families.
