

Welcome to . . .

GARCIA'S PIZZA IN A PANSM

Home of Ralph & Joe . . . the Flying Tomato Brothers!

Once upon a time, a long time ago (before 1971) . . . pizza in the Midwest was pretty much all the same.

Thin. Flat. Often mistaken for a saltine cracker covered with tomato sauce.

But in 1971, Ralph and Joe, the Flying Tomato Brothers, brought deep pan pizza to the midwest -- and changed everything. They developed a NEW kind of light, thick pizza crust (baked in specially designed deep metal pans) that forever altered the way people enjoy pizza. Thin was out. Thick was in.

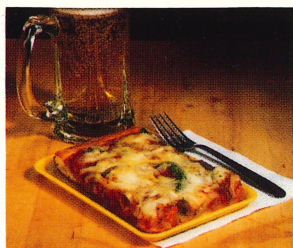

Then, the traditional round pizza shape was squared off, cut up, and served a strange new way . . . by the slice! No longer need you gather a crowd just to split up a whole pizza. Enter pizza for the individual, ready when you are. Garcia's Pan Pizza by the Slice was born!

Today, you can choose from four different pizza slices, each weighing in at 1/2 pound or more. Each served all day, every day. Each a superb value priced under two bucks. Of course, all four slices are smothered in Ralph & Joe's secret recipe tomato sauce, covered with only the freshest vegetables and meats, and baked to perfection with the richest, chewiest, thickest 100% real mozzarella.

When you've got a few friends and a little time, try our whole pan pizza with original thick or new thin crust and your choice of goodies or amazing gourmet stuffed pan pizzas!

One more thing -- serving pizza isn't the only thing done differently at Flying Tomato . . . just look at the way Ralph and Joe fly! So the next time you see a giant seven-story tomato overhead, stop and wave at Ralph & Joe . . . then hurry back to Garcia's Pizza in a Pan for a slice. Not a franchise -- we personally supervise each restaurant!
