https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1z_ZZNASHaRyPzqSGEcHCoqIpqSUdqXUF3EzmGZtQ/edit#gid=533109016

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: As discussed at the last meeting, all of the funding items on this budget are mainly for food and add up to around $1,100. This is similar to the typical cost of this event accounting for a slight increase due to inflation.
Dakota Smith, Association for Computing Machinery Treasurer: MinerLAN is a place for people to come together, hang out, relax before finals, and meet up with others. Food, games, and a movie will be provided. The event takes up both lounges in the Computer Science building.

The floor was opened for discussion.

Lucas Ethington, Rocket Design Team: Do we have the money for that?

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Yes.

The question was called.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Aye 74 Votes (92.5%)
Nay 6 Votes (7.5%)

➢ Budget: https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1SuEXknlp-uzgWLgztSNnySnqW4iSqdV4M7YnFF8C2BE/edit#gid=533109016

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: We’re coming back to the Club Appropriations Budget from last meeting. We’ve amended these totals so they’re closer to even and easier to manage.

Q: Anna Buchholz, Newman Catholic Campus Ministry Center: Did we ever hear back from the Iranian Student Association about the expensive items?
A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: We didn’t hear back, but their funding was decreased according to the same rules as everyone else.

Q: Cameron Ashley, American Nuclear Society: Do we have the money for this?
A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: I’ll get into that further during code review, but yes, we do have the money for this.

The floor was opened for discussion.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Aye 77 Votes (96.25%)
Nay 3 Votes (3.75%)

e. SAFB Code Review – Second Reading and Approval

➢ View: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1Ald_rm4Z9uGnYWRUepCJoidhl6E7UvxhFzxKPMx9QKg/edit#

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: SAFB now officially determines funding based on “Good Standing,” which is defined in the Student Council Constitution. Also changed is that in every external funding group, a provision has been added. Because of the way overage works, SAFB will only assign 95% of the expected revenue to leave a 5% margin of safety. We are adding to this procedure to reallocate that 5% once the total money available to assign is known.

Josh Rehwaldt then demonstrated the final change with a sample budget.

Q: Cameron Ashley, American Nuclear Society: What happens if the money available doesn’t reach the expected 95%?

A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Everyone is dropped proportionally.

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Those are all the proposed changes. If there are any additional changes, please make them now before we vote.

The floor was opened for discussion.

The question was called.

A 3/4 supermajority was required for approval.

Aye 76 Votes (98.7%)
Nay 1 Vote (1.3%)

The SAFB Code Review was approved as presented.

A brief round of applause was given.

5. New Business

a. SAFB Equipment and Contingencies Request – Men’s and Women’s Rugby

Brenna Cornelison and Hans Pommerenke presented on behalf of the Women’s and Men’s Rugby Teams, respectively.

Brenna Cornelison, Women’s Rugby: We are a first-year team and didn’t expect to make nationals, so we didn’t budget to make that trip. We need this passed tonight because the next meeting is on April 25th, and we leave on the 26th. We are asking for $6,000 from the Equipment and Contingencies fund.

Hans Pommerenke, Men’s Rugby: We’re in a similar situation, but we haven’t fully qualified yet. Our upcoming games will determine whether we make it or not, but there is a fair chance we will. We’re asking for the same amount as the Women’s team.
Official Meeting Minutes

General Body Meeting

April 11, 2022

Q: Dylan Fritz, Fellowship of Christian Athletes: If the Men's team loses, what happens to the money?

A: Hans Pommerenke, Men's Rugby: If Men's loses, the money will go back to the fund.

Q: Unknown: Would plane tickets be cheaper?

A: Hans Pommerenke, Men's Rugby: No, we checked and they are more expensive.

The floor was opened for discussion.

Unknown: I think it’s great that the teams are going to represent us on a national level.

Megan Baris, Miner Theatre Guild: Do we have the money for this?

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Yes.

Lucas Ethington, Rocket Design Team: Is this voted on together or separately?

Martin De La Hunt, Vice President of Operations: These are two organizations, but they are jointly filing one contingency request, so this will all be considered under one vote.

The question was called.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: As of five minutes ago, Club Sports Budgets are now done yearly.

Q: Cindy Wilson, Archery Team: “Where's our budget?”

A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: The bottom.

Q: Unknown: Is there anything under ‘not approved’?

A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: No. That was only to be used if the code review failed.

Q: Cameron Ashley, American Nuclear Society: Why does Women’s Rugby have 75%? I thought it was capped at 50%.

A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Since they're a first-year organization, they get 100% funding for one semester and 50% for the next.

Q: Andrew Kuhl, Nuclear Science Design Team: Why is the total 103%?
A: Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: We’re trying to balance out the overage money that’s left over.

The floor was opened for discussion.

Hans Pommerenke of the Rugby Team motioned to amend both the Men’s and Women’s Rugby budgets to add $3,000 to each, pulling the needed funding from the current year’s overage.

Q: Unknown: What’s the motivation for this?
A: Hans Pommerenke, Rugby: We have upfront costs that are going up every year, and we don’t get the chance to fundraise beforehand because they are needed two weeks into the semester.

The floor was opened for discussion on the amendment.

The question was called.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Aye 73 Votes (94.81%)
Nay 4 Votes (5.19%)

The amendment to the Club Sports Budget passed.

Discussion resumed on the amended budget.

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: The changes are now reflected on the spreadsheet. The only relevant change is that Club Sports will have $6,000 less to allocate overall two years down the line.

The question was called.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Aye 78 Votes (97.5%)
Nay 2 Votes (2.5%)

The SAFB Club Sports Budget was approved as amended.

c. SAFB New Member Approval

Josh Rehwaldt, SAFB Chair: Logan has been serving as a Proxy for ASUM for the past four or five SAFB meetings, and meets all the requirements for grades, attendance, and being a good person.

➢ Logan Garton, Associated Students of the University of Missouri

Logan Garton: I got involved on campus and in SAFB just because I like to help out, and now I have gained experience from that. (sarcastically) "As you’ve heard, I’m clearly a great guy."

Multiple Unknown members seconded that Logan Garton is indeed a great guy.

There were no questions.
The candidate was escorted from the room and the floor was opened for discussion.

[Discussion Redacted]

The question was called.

A ⅔ supermajority was required for approval.

Logan Garton 83 Votes (98.81%)
No Confidence 1 Vote (1.19%)

d. Bill 2223B1 – First Reading

➢ Authors: Martin De La Hunt, Jared Caldwell
➢ Read the amendment: https://stuco.mst.edu/2223b2/

Martin De La Hunt, Vice President of Operations and Jared Caldwell, Vice President of Student Services gave summaries of the proposed changes to the By-Laws:

Martin De La Hunt, Vice President of Operations: My main changes are adding two new executive positions. One, the Membership Liaison, will serve to keep track of all rosters and attendance as well as any other records relating to membership. The second, the Clerk of the Council, will be responsible for minutes, agendas, and other official publications.

Jared Caldwell, Vice President of Student Services: I made some changes to the way Honor Cords are awarded, basing them on a points system instead of specific requirements. Also, I limited some of the capabilities under the Emergency Powers Act, which seems like a relic from the pandemic, to avoid any abuse of the system.

Martin De La Hunt, Vice President of Operations: This will be finished at our next meeting. We will release the full text sometime before then for you all to review.
