Stacy:

Thought of you the other day! I am so glad I took your class this fall! I wish it was more accessible/required for all dance majors. You offer a prospective and honesty that I believe is so needed in our dance curriculum. I discovered a lot about myself from your class last semester. Understanding to be accepting of myself and where I am now, but never settle with being content where I am because I can always learn more and do more to progress. I decided to enroll myself in a theatre London studies course called "Introduction to the London Stage" and I saw this incredible mime show last Wednesday called The Nature of Forgetting produced by Theatre Re. Truly incredible. I just wanted to write to you and thank you for being who you are and putting so much effort into your students!
