Any additional comments about the instructor.

Incredible teacher and person.

Stacy Alley is a dedicated and driven instructor who always strives to endow the utmost knowledge upon all her students. She is intelligent and always finds ways to explain material in a myriad of ways, to ensure all students understand the concepts. She accomplishes this without compromising the course rigor.

Stacy does a great job and truly teaching the technique in this class. She also takes into account that each student is at a different level and accommodates for their specific needs. She is very thorough in her explanations when describing certain techniques and makes sure that each student comes out of the class being completely confident in their knowledge of dance.

Stacy is a very well versed tapper and very qualified to teach this course. I have no complaints and think that the course is structured very well.

Any additional comments about the course.

I've learned more than enough from this course.

Tap 200 is an excellent introduction to tap. The course introduces the fundamentals of the art. However, an intermediate level is needed before being able to take the next level of tap at the University.
