In adopting these bylaws, the faculty members of the Joe C. Wen School of Population and Public Health at UC Irvine affirm our commitment to democratic principles, fairness, inclusive excellence, and the highest ethical standards in all our operations.

Section I. General Provisions

A. Functions and Authority

The academic governance of the Joe C. Wen School of Population and Public Health, hereafter referred to as "Wen Public Health", is vested in its Faculty, except as limited by the Code of the Academic Senate and the Standing Orders and Policies adopted by the Board of Regents. As a School of the Susan and Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences (CoHS), Wen Public Health is authorized by the Manual of the Irvine Division Appendix I Chapter VIII (CoHS Bylaws) to maintain its own set of bylaws outlining its autonomous governance, including the structure and function of its committees, and the duties and responsibilities of its faculty and officers.

As per Bylaw 55 of the University of California Senate, each academic department within Wen Public Health shall determine its own form of administrative organization.

B. Membership

Membership in the Faculty of Wen Public Health is defined by Irvine Division Bylaws 10, 27, 40, and the CoHS Bylaws. All Academic Senate members with salaried appointments in Wen Public Health are members and eligible to vote on all matters under consideration by the Faculty of Wen Public Health.

Non-senate faculty including adjunct faculty, visiting faculty, and affiliated faculty (including those who teach part-time and those who have an enduring relationship with Wen Public Health), as well as non-senate clinical faculty and faculty appointed jointly to Wen Public Health without salary, may participate in faculty meetings and have the right to be heard, but may not vote or hold office.

C. Officers

Elections will be held before close of the Spring quarter preceding the end of an officer's term. All elected terms will begin July 1 of each year. In the event that an elected officer is unable to complete their term, a special election to fill the vacancy will be held within 60 days of notification of such event. In such an instance, the term duration of the elected replacement will be the remaining term of the originally elected officer.

C.1 Faculty Chair

The Faculty Chair shall serve as Wen Public Health representative to the Representative Assembly of the Irvine Division and as Chair of the Wen Public Health Faculty Council for a two-year term. The Faculty Chair shall serve as the Wen Public Health representative to other faculty assemblies consisting of other academic units with shared interests. The Faculty Chair will preside or designate another Faculty Officer to preside over Wen Public Health Faculty Meetings.
C.2 Faculty Vice Chair

The Faculty Vice Chair shall be elected by the Wen Public Health Senate Faculty for a two-year term. The Faculty Vice Chair is a member of the Wen Public Health Faculty Council and automatically assumes the role of Faculty Chair following completion of the term as Faculty Vice Chair.

C.3 CoHS Senate Faculty Assembly Representatives

Functions, membership, appointment, term length, and operations of the CoHS Senate Faculty Assembly are specified in the CoHS Bylaws. Regular election and filling of vacancies for the Wen Public Health representatives to the CoHS Senate Faculty Assembly shall be conducted after an open call for nominations. A slate of candidates shall be provided to faculty at least 7 days before the end of the voting period.

C.4 CoHS Executive Committee Representatives

Functions, membership, appointment, term length, and operations of the CoHS Executive Committee are specified in the CoHS Bylaws, which call for two representative members from each Program/School/Unit. The Faculty Chair and Chair-Elect shall serve as the two representatives from Wen Public Health. Any additional number of representatives granted to Wen Public Health will be selected after an open call for nominations. A slate of candidates shall be provided to faculty at least 7 days before the end of the voting period.

D. Faculty Meetings

D.1 Each Wen Public Health Department shall develop and maintain departmental bylaws, and will be responsible for organizing and holding regular faculty meetings for the conduct of departmental business, in accordance with departmental procedures and leadership.

D.2 A meeting of the Wen Public Health Faculty shall be held at least once per academic year with a minimum of one week’s notice prior to each meeting. In addition, the Faculty shall meet at such times as it may determine, or at the call of the Chair of the Wen Public Health Faculty Council or the Dean of Wen Public Health.

D.3 A Wen Public Health Faculty meeting shall be called for discussion of any proposal to add or remove an academic department/unit from Wen Public Health, or any other major structural change to Wen Public Health, at least two weeks prior to faculty vote on such proposals.

D.4 Simple majority of the Senate Faculty shall constitute a quorum of the Faculty.

E. School-Wide Voting and Election Procedures

E.1 The Faculty Chair will oversee all school-wide faculty votes and elections. In instances in which a conflict of interest is identified (real or perceived), the Faculty Vice Chair will assume voting and election oversight.

E.2 Quorum will be reached with 75 percent of voting-eligible faculty for all faculty votes and elections. Faculty actively voting to “abstain” from a vote contributes to the establishment of quorum.

E.3 Faculty Voting Procedures

a. Faculty voting will be conducted by means of a secret electronic ballot distributed to the voting faculty of Wen Public Health.
b. All proposed actions should be recorded as "for," "against," "abstain," or "did not vote." If faculty members are on leave, unresponsive, or otherwise unavailable, this should be indicated under "did not vote."

c. All proposed actions should offer opportunities for the inclusion of faculty comments to accompany the vote.

d. Faculty should have no fewer than five business days to cast a vote.

e. A proposed action is adopted upon the endorsement of the majority of cast votes.

E.3 Faculty Election Procedures

a. Faculty elections will be conducted by means of a secret electronic ballot distributed to the voting faculty of Wen Public Health.

b. Faculty should have no fewer than five business days to cast a vote.

c. Faculty are considered elected upon receipt of the majority of cast votes. In the case of more than two candidates in an election, if no candidate receives the majority of cast votes, then a run-off election among the two candidates with the greatest number of votes shall be conducted.

Section II. Committees

A. Standing Committees

Standing Committees of the Faculty are provided for in these Bylaws. Members of the standing committees, unless otherwise noted, are appointed for two-year terms by the Faculty Chair following consultation with the Dean and Department Chairs. Appointments are to be made not later than the last day of the Spring quarter for service in the following academic year; whenever possible appointments should be staggered to provide for continuity. All committee memberships will be limited to a four consecutive year term. However, faculty can repeat service to any committee provided service is spaced by a one-year reprieve. Faculty with an administrative title (e.g., Dept Chair, Associate Dean, Equity Advisor) will not be members on any standing committee.
