

Student Conduct Procedures for Resolution of Violations

Report

Student Conduct policy violations are reported to the Office of Academic Integrity & Student Conduct (OAISC).

Review

OAISC notifies Student via their UCI email and requests a meeting within 12 days.

During this meeting, Student has the opportunity to review and respond to the report.

If Student chooses not to meet, OAISC may place a hold on the student's account.

OAISC collects and reviews information.

Decision

OAISC decides, based on a preponderance of the evidence, if there is a finding of responsibility and determines Administrative Sanctions.

Student is notified of OAISC decision and their right to appeal, via their UCI email.

If Student chooses not to appeal, the OAISC decision is final.

Appeal

In cases of a warning or probation, Student can only appeal to the Dean of Students (DOS).

In cases of suspension or dismissal, Student has the option to appeal to the DOS or to the Student Conduct Review Board (SCRB)

DOS - Final decision is issued by DOS

SCRB - Student accepts SCRБ decision or chooses to appeal, and submits a written appeal to Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs decision is final.

Parties notified of final decision and Administrative Sanctions.
