Message from the Chancellor

Congratulations on reaching this very special milestone in your life. Today, as we celebrate the University of California, Irvine's 65th commencement, enjoy the pride, nostalgia, and excitement of the moment. As you participate in these time-honored graduation rites, I encourage you to remember that you did not achieve this success alone or in a vacuum. Please take the time to thank the family, friends, and mentors who have supported and shepherded you through this journey.

All of us are extremely proud of your accomplishments and the contributions you have made to UC Irvine and our community. I am even more excited, though, by what lies ahead for you, as you enter the world enabled, empowered, and inspired to succeed in whatever endeavors you choose to pursue.

Today, as you join the proud alumni of UC Irvine, you become part of a family of graduates who are leaders, innovators, and teachers who make a difference in our global community. Please come back and visit us, update us with news on your careers, and stay in touch through the Alumni Association. Wherever the future leads you, you will always be remembered at UC Irvine.

Fiat Lux,

Howard Gillman
Chancellor

Message from the Vice Chancellor, Student Affairs

Dear Class of 2025 Graduates:

Congratulations!!! As you and your loved ones prepare to celebrate your achievements this month, I hope you are able to take a moment to reflect on how far you have come.

You are now a graduate of one of the premier institutions of learning, and join an alumni network of more than 227,000 anteaters around the world. You should be proud of all that you have accomplished during your time at UC Irvine. My sincere hope is that you have taken the past years to learn more about yourself, your community, and your academic major. All of us in the Division of Student Affairs are confident that you will use everything you have learned during your time at UC Irvine to transform not only yourself, but also the world.

As you close this chapter in your life, take some time to thank your family and friends for their support. Your graduation from UC Irvine is a reflection of their love and support for you through this time. Make sure to take time and savor this moment. I hope that you will remember your college days fondly, and that one day you will tell the story of UC Irvine and how your life was changed by being here. You are an Anteater for life and we could not be more proud to have you as one of our proud alumni!

Congratulations and Zot, Zot, Zot!

Claire Trevor School of the Arts

Dear Graduating Artists,

Congratulations Class of 2025! We are thrilled by your accomplishments and proud of your journey at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts and UC Irvine. You graduate from the only named school of the arts within the University of California system, meaning you completed your college education within a community of artists at a globally renowned top tier research university. As dreamers and doers, you now boldly launch into your future as visionary creatives and esteemed alumni.

This is a pivotal cultural moment that needs artists more than ever. Your generation will not only innovate new careers but also further enrich the meaning of work. Your depth of experience, knowledge, and training, along with your clarity of vision and voice, position you as powerful catalysts for bettering the world. As artists, you understand the power of inspiration to impact and move people. The future needs your creativity, and it is yours to shape.

As you step into this next chapter, be confident that your unique ability to express, collaborate, and inspire are invaluable across diverse fields. Today's complex challenges require teams who possess the custom toolbox you carry, including open expression and civil discourse. Your artistry has the power to reshape perspectives and open pathways. More than half of the careers in your future will be ones you expand and invent! We are excited to see how you build on your experiences and contribute your artistic talents to a broad range of fields, both within the creative economy and beyond.

During your time here, you have built an incredible network of friends, mentors, and colleagues to be continued supporters and champions. Please don't be shy in sharing with us your new accomplishments and calling on us as a resource. We love to spotlight the many ways our graduates put their arts education into practice. We also love to connect our alumni with our new students who are inspired by the paths you have forged and value all you offer as an alumni mentor.

Today, we celebrate your achievements, your bravery and your boldness. Thank you for your contributions and enhancing the excellence of our school. We eagerly anticipate staying connected and following your continued journey.

A very heartfelt congratulations and best wishes as you embark on this next chapter!

Charlie Dunlop School of Biological Sciences

Dear Class of 2025,

Congratulations on your graduation from UC Irvine and the Charlie Dunlop School of Biological Sciences. You completed one of the most rigorous undergraduate programs on campus, a testament to your hard work, perseverance and determination. These qualities will serve you well in your future endeavors.

Today, your accomplishments at the Dunlop School are being lauded as we celebrate your Commencement. From tomorrow onward, as one of our thousands of alumni, remember what you have learned here about science and technology, and apply it well in your pursuit of shaping a healthier, more prosperous world. You will find that UC Irvine has helped to prepare you for your future, whatever opportunities and challenges it holds.

As you embark on the next phase of your life, I encourage you to reflect proudly on your time here and the personal lessons of perseverance. BioSci is embedded in your DNA, so I urge you to stay connected with us as your life's journey continues. That way, we can continue to support you, celebrate your successes and provide you with opportunities to inspire the generations of students who will follow in your footsteps through our halls.

Best wishes,

The Paul Merage School of Business

Dear Class of 2025,

Congratulations on achieving this extraordinary milestone. On behalf of the faculty and staff of the UC Irvine's Paul Merage School of Business, it is a privilege to celebrate your success and to recognize the dedication, resilience, and clarity of purpose you have shown throughout your time with us.

You graduate at a pivotal moment—one defined by rapid technological disruption, global uncertainty, and unprecedented opportunity. Throughout your Merage School journey, you embraced these changes head-on. You sharpened your ability to think strategically, adapt quickly, and lead with both innovation and integrity. These qualities will define the business leaders who shape the next decade, and you are ready to be among them.

At the Merage School, we have continued to evolve our programs to meet the demands of this era: integrating artificial intelligence into core coursework, expanding experiential learning with industry partners, and deepening our emphasis on responsible leadership and sustainability. You've been active participants in that evolution—testing ideas, building new ventures, and engaging with Southern California's dynamic business ecosystem. In doing so, you helped strengthen the very community that now stands behind you.

As you move forward, know that you carry more than a credential. You carry the shared values, insight, and ambition of the Merage School community. You join a global network of alumni who are reimagining industries, leading teams across borders, and advancing meaningful change in their organizations and communities. This network is now yours to draw upon—and yours to enrich.

We hope you will stay connected, continue to challenge yourself, and uphold the spirit of innovation that has defined your Merage experience.

Congratulations once again on this remarkable achievement. We can't wait to see the impact you will make as leaders of the future.

Zot! Zot! Zot!

School of Education

To the School of Education Class of 2025,

Congratulations on this incredible milestone, Class of 2025! Today marks the culmination of years of hard work, perseverance, and passion for learning—and the beginning of your next chapter as educators, researchers, and advocates for change.

At the UC Irvine School of Education, you've developed the knowledge, skills, and empathy to make a lasting impact. Whether your path leads to the classroom, the community, or the broader field of education, I hope you carry forward the same curiosity and commitment that brought you here.

Education doesn't end with a degree—it grows with every student you teach, every question you ask, and every challenge you help solve. I know you will continue to shape a more inclusive and just world through your work.

The School of Education community is proud of all you have accomplished and grateful for your commitment to improving education for all. We hope you'll stay connected, visit often, and remain an engaged part of our Anteater family.

Congratulations to you, and to the families and loved ones who have supported you on this journey. Wishing you continued success, purpose, and fulfillment in the years ahead.

Samueli School of Engineering

Dear Samueli School of Engineering Class of 2025,

Congratulations on this important and impressive milestone! You have made it through to earn your degree from UCI's Samueli School of Engineering. We are very proud of you and have every confidence in your continued success because being an Anteater Engineer is to have the superpower to deal with complex situations, go after hard problems, and not shy away from the big questions we are facing together as a global society.

The completion of your engineering degree is a testament to your resilience, creativity and hard work. I have no doubt that your experience at UCI will provide you with the knowledge, skills and leadership that you will need to impact and benefit us all in countless ways.

As you move forward in your careers, I encourage you to do the following: maintain our values and dedication to excellence and lifelong learning, commit to truth and fairness, and remember to embrace individual differences. As the newest graduating class of the Samueli School, I hope you stay connected with us through our Engineering Alumni Society, as well as through the UCI Alumni Association.

Congratulations on your well-deserved achievement. Be courageous, be strong, be awesome. And use your new superpower for good in the world!

Zot, Zot, Zot!

Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences

Congratulations, Class of 2025!

Graduates of the Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences, I commend your dedication, curiosity and determination. What an achievement! You have contributed to a period of unprecedented growth: As we celebrate UCI's 60th anniversary, you know we are just getting started. Your passion has brought our mission to Discover, Teach, Heal to life.

Our upward trajectory has continued with the recent opening of our new UCI Health — Irvine hospital off Jamboree Road and Campus Drive. A 144-bed acute-care hospital that marks the culmination of a dream of the founders of the university, who envisioned a medical center on campus. Together we have made that dream a reality. Through our rapid expansion, we now operate six hospitals to serve the community, bringing the benefits of academic medicine to 5.6 million residents across Orange, southern Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

This year we also opened the Falling Leaves Foundation Medical Innovation Building: At 215,000 square feet, it is a jewel of discovery that gathers brilliant minds from all over the university to pursue prevention and treatments for a wide range of health disorders, from blindness, depression and diabetes to cancer and Alzheimer's.

Collaboration is our greatest strength, and our most powerful innovation. Your energy and work ethic have helped us break down disciplinary silos that have traditionally separated research, education and healthcare delivery. How we care for patients informs what we study and what we teach, and this yields continuous quality improvement in each domain of the mission. As a 2025 graduate, go forward with this certainty: You have mastered the knowledge and skills to harness your passion to address some of the most difficult problems in the healthcare landscape. And you will do this — whether in medicine, nursing, pharmacy and pharmaceutical sciences, or population and public health — because you will work together.

This is a challenging time, and your community, and the country, need you more than ever. Continue to be curious, never stop learning, and hold fast to your ideals. Approach the world with an open mind, and what you want to achieve will happen if you practice with patience, persistence and compassion.

We are dedicated to helping you achieve your goals after you graduate — we measure our own success by your accomplishments and your satisfaction in service. Some of you will leave to continue your discover, teach and heal missions, and others will stay with us. In either case, please share your experiences as you advance in your careers. You will forever be a member of the Anteater family.

All the very best to you in this new and exciting phase of your life journey.

Vice Chancellor, Health Affairs

Joe C. Wen School of Population and Public Health

Congratulations to the Class of 2025 on this remarkable milestone. On behalf of our faculty, staff, and fellow Anteaters, I extend my warmest congratulations as you celebrate your commencement from the UC Irvine Joe C. Wen School of Population & Public Health. As members of our early graduating cohorts, you carry forward the legacy begun by our inaugural class and continue to shape what Wen Public Health will become. Your achievements reflect not only your resilience and dedication, but also the growing strength of a school whose foundation you have helped build.

Over the past few years, you have contributed to groundbreaking public health initiatives that have addressed some of the most pressing issues of our time. From tackling health inequities to advancing research on climate change's impact on community health, your work has embodied the heart of our mission: to improve the well-being of populations through innovation, collaboration, and dedication. You've worked on community-based projects that brought research into action, partnered with global organizations to reduce disparities, and harnessed the power of AI and machine learning to conduct precision public health. These accomplishments speak volumes about the passion and creativity you bring to the field of public health.

I want to take a moment to acknowledge the dedication, perseverance, and passion that have brought you to this point. I will not tell you the road will be easy – it seldom is. For every achievement, there are challenges and barriers to overcome. Embrace mistakes. They serve a purpose: to help you learn. When you secure that new job or hit that milestone in a project, know that you deserve it and have worked hard to get to that point.

As you stand on the threshold of a new chapter in your life, remember that the skills and knowledge you've gained at UC Irvine are just the beginning. The world needs public health leaders like you — leaders who challenge the status quo, forge new partnerships, and work tirelessly to create healthier futures for all. Your commitment to public health is commendable and deeply inspiring. Whether you are embarking on a career in research, policy, advocacy, or practice, your contributions will make a profound impact on the health and well-being of communities worldwide. You will lead with compassion, drive, and the desire to make a difference in the lives of those around you, which all lie at the heart of what we do in public health. Your work will help usher in a future that is more sustainable, equitable, and just.

Thank you for all you've contributed to our school and for setting a high standard for the classes that will follow. Go forward with confidence and purpose, knowing you are helping to build the enduring story of the Joe C. Wen School of Population & Public Health. As you step into society as public health practitioners, remember that you are entering a field that remains ever vigilant—one that stands at the forefront of protecting and uplifting our communities.

Your expertise is deeply needed, especially in a time when evidence-based practice and scientific trust are being challenged. As you work to advance the health and well-being of your communities, draw strength from the knowledge and experiences you gained at UC Irvine, and know that the field of public health is stronger because you are part of it. We can't wait to see what you achieve next.

Congratulations, graduates of the Class of 2025!

School of Humanities

On this happy occasion of your commencement, you are each concluding your study at UC Irvine and embarking on a new life as the proud holder of a University of California degree in a humanities field.

Let me be the first to congratulate you. You are a select group who worked tirelessly to be admitted to UCI, and to excel in your majors. You put in hard nights of reading and writing papers and studying for exams and meeting your requirements one by one. Your goal was not just to get a good grade on one assignment, or completing a course, or even meeting all the requirements of your major. It was always something that lies beyond the boundaries of the campus and its program: opening up the opportunities in your life that your UCI degree makes possible, and that at this moment of commencement you can't even yet fully foresee. These include the possibility to go on to more advanced study in graduate or professional school; to make your mark in government, media, or business; or to lead and serve in your community, at home or perhaps elsewhere in the world.

The humanities focus on the histories and cultures of the world, the images and stories we use to represent the human experience, and the theories and concepts that we use to make sense of our world. Human meaning-making is an ongoing and ever-evolving process, and the skills you have gained in understanding and contributing to it never go out of date or lose their relevance. Our world is changing at an extraordinary pace. We need humanities-trained leaders and thinkers like you to help us to make sense of it all, make conscious and ethical choices, and imagine new ways of living and working in a radically changed environment.

You will bring the skills you have learned here—to listen and read closely, to think critically and analytically, to interpret texts and images, and to write with clarity and power—to all the work you have ahead of you. We have prepared you not just for a job, but for a career of your own making, which may have many new turns and changes along the way.

But through the lenses of the humanities, we have also prepared you to appreciate better the beauty, complexity, and richness of the world, to experience it with depth and knowledge. That is not just an enhancement to your career or your earning power; it is the basis of a richer, more authentic, and more meaningful life.

I wish you every success in your future, and the deepest appreciation for what you have given us by your presence in the School of Humanities during your studies.

Congratulations and enjoy your commencement!

Donald Bren School of Information & Computer Sciences

The world runs on technology: from artificial intelligence to big data, from digital media and learning to digital health, from cybersecurity to human-machine interaction. These technologies represent only a few of the cutting-edge areas that faculty, students and alumni from the Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences (ICS) have been advancing, making the world a better, safer, accessible, and more inclusive place through the exploration of emerging information technologies, innovative and broad computing curricula, and interdisciplinary collaborations that address key societal needs.

As students of ICS, one of the first computing-focused schools in the nation and the only one on the West Coast, you have helped it grow into one of the largest, most enriching, and most diverse computing programs in the country. You have shown incredible creativity and entrepreneurial spirit during your time at UC Irvine, and you are now prepared to lead the way in creating a bright future for society.

As alumni of ICS, you will have many good reasons and excellent opportunities to remain connected with our School. Whether you are continuing your education or joining the workforce, remember that you are now part of a growing ICS alumni network with over 20,000 members who want to see you succeed. Please stay in touch so that we can celebrate your successes and help you connect with other accomplished ICS alums.

Congratulations to the Class of 2025! The ICS faculty and staff take great pride in your accomplishments and look forward to watching you continue to make a positive difference in the world.

School of Physical Sciences

Congratulations, graduates of the School of Physical Sciences!

You've done something remarkable. The long nights in labs, the problem sets that refused to yield, the experiments that finally worked—you've earned your degree at UC Irvine, a really tough challenge that you should be proud to have met.

Almost half of you took part in undergraduate research—an extraordinary number. Many are heading to top graduate and professional programs. Others have already begun careers that change lives. Many joined our mentorship programs, strengthening the community that defines UCI. I think our mentors do a wonderful job, and maybe you can reach out and thank them one more time. I hope one day you'll come back as mentors yourselves, ready to share what you've learned along the way.

Your journeys from here will be as varied as the disciplines within our School. Some of you will chase down mathematical truths; others will design new materials, model the climate, or explore the quantum or cosmic frontiers. However your curiosity manifests, never forget—it's that curiosity, paired with persistence, that will always be your greatest asset.

In these challenging times, now more than ever, the world needs thinkers like you: scientists, mathematicians, explorers of the unknown. So, keep pushing boundaries. Keep asking bold questions. And never lose that spark of wonder that brought you here in the first place.

Congratulations once again—you've got a bright future ahead, and I can't wait to see what you do with it.

Most important of all, keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Kieron Burke, Ph.D.

School of Social Ecology

Dear Class of 2025:

Congratulations on completing your degree from the School of Social Ecology!

As we celebrate your achievements, we wish you success along the next path of your journey. You earned your degree from our school, a leader in interdisciplinary research, team science, and community-embedded scholarship. You have studied and researched alongside faculty members and fellow students who share a commitment to understanding human behavior and seek to make the world a better place. Our research, courses and field study opportunities are oriented at solving some of the most crucial social and environmental challenges of our time, including issues involving the coronavirus pandemic, mass incarceration, environmental sustainability, homelessness, poverty and mental health. With this stage of your education now completed, we encourage you to take what you have learned to become part of the solution.

Our school also emphasizes the importance of equity and justice. We have prepared you to think about how you can help advance a more equitable society. We will look to you with great hope as you apply that greater sense of purpose in your next endeavors.

No matter where you are headed next or what you will do, please know that we take pride in you and your accomplishments. As alumni of Social Ecology, we hope you will please remember to stay connected so we can continue to cheer on your successes.

Congratulations on your graduation and go out and make a difference!

Best wishes,

Congratulations, UCI social sciences graduates! I'm so proud to welcome you as our newest members of the Social Sciences Alumni Network. With your graduation today, you are joining an elite group of more than 64,000 changemakers who can be found everywhere from the halls of justice in D.C. to capitals around the world engaged in work that's truly changing lives. Our alumni are making a difference through entrepreneurial endeavors from Northgate to Northern Africa, in courtrooms across the nation, boardrooms in some of the world's top companies, and classrooms around the globe training our next generation of leaders.

While each of your pathways to this degree has been unique, your shared experiences as an Anteater will stay with you long after leaving campus today. And no matter your story, you've all shown the true resiliency of the soc sci Anteater spirit.

As you embark on your next chapter, your individual versions of "what's next," I challenge each of you to continue pursuing a future that makes the world a better place than you've found it. Be bold, always break the mold, and be boundaryless in your pursuit.

Congratulations, social sciences graduates of the class of 2025.

Dear Graduates, Families, and Friends,

Today, we gather to celebrate an extraordinary milestone. The Class of 2025 represents the curiosity, perseverance, and brilliance that define UC Irvine's graduate community.

To our graduates: Your time at UCI has been marked by exploration, innovation, and meaningful growth. You have advanced knowledge in your fields, contributed to the vibrancy of our campus, and prepared yourselves to meet the challenges and opportunities ahead. As you embark on your next chapter, I encourage you to carry forward the values of integrity, collaboration, and inclusive excellence that guide our university.

To the families, friends, mentors, and supporters who stood behind our graduates—thank you. Your encouragement, patience, and belief in their potential have played an essential role in today's achievement.

As you celebrate this remarkable accomplishment, know that your Anteater family is deeply proud of you. You now join a distinguished network of UCI alumni who are shaping communities, industries, and scholarship across the globe. Please stay connected—we look forward to hearing about the impact you make in the years ahead.

UCI Alumni Association

To the Class of 2025:

Congratulations! What an accomplishment! I hope as you celebrate this achievement, you are able to reflect on all that this moment represents for you personally. It is likely the culmination of years-long efforts to not only get into UC Irvine, but to then successfully navigate the coursework and challenges of your studies.

As you mark this moment, I encourage you to find time to pause and reflect – on how far you've come on this journey as well as the accomplishments you are proud of along the way.

On this day as you celebrate your graduation, I hope that you'll also take a moment to express gratitude to all who have journeyed by your side, providing support and guidance — perhaps family, friends, faculty, and mentors. But also, your Anteater community. While you complete your time as a student here today, your connection to UC Irvine can span well beyond your student years. Know that with each step forward, you continue to be part of our UC Irvine alumni community.

As an alum you continue to represent UC Irvine, and I hope you do so with pride. I encourage you to stay connected, remain involved and strengthen your relationship with the university and Anteaters of all graduating classes past and future. I invite you to stay connected to our Anteater network no matter where you go in the world - engage with our UC Irvine alumni at regional events, be part of the more than 40 chapters and networks across the world and keep up to date through our alumni magazine The Anteater.

The UC Irvine Alumni network has more than 274,000 members and includes accomplished individuals who are invested in your success and can help you increase your connection to our alma mater. As an active member of the Alumni Association, you will help continue a tradition that makes UC Irvine and the alumni network itself stronger. Find out how you can leverage the benefits and services of being a member, including access to service, social and networking events, access to alumni travel programs, and access to online research databases and UC libraries across the system.

Sixty years ago, UC Irvine was established with a vision to become a leader of discovery and innovation serving our local, national, and global communities. You leave today helping to realize that vision.

As you take these next steps forward as a graduate (from one of the top universities in the nation!) know that we are so proud of you, Anteater.

Zot! Zot! Zot!

Lindsay Miller '08

UC Irvine Mace

The Mace leads the Commencement processional and is carried by a member of the UCI Alumni Association Board of Directors.

The UCI Alumni Association presented the UCI Mace to the campus on May 12, 2000.

The names of each
UCI Chancellor are engraved on the top

Carved from California oak,
the Mace is designed to resemble the nose of an anteater, UCI's mascot.
