

Honor Code

Adherence to an honor code will promote the growth and development of health care professionals at Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences.

We therefore commit to the following:

Pledge of Academic Standards

- Students will neither give nor receive aid in examinations or independent class work.
- Students will not represent artificial intelligence (AI) or others' work as their own.
- Students will abide by academic standards as put forth by each class instructor.

Pledge of Professionalism

- Students will appreciate and respect the diverse perspectives, experiences and identities of peers, faculty, staff, and the community at large.
- Students will conduct themselves as ambassadors to the community from PNWU.
- Students will treat the campus community with respect and will expect to be treated with respect.

Pledge of Community Obligation

- Students understand that the integrity of the honor code is predicated upon agreement of the entire campus community to uphold the spirit and the letter of the honor code.

Charge to Uphold

- Students' first obligation is to directly approach peers concerning perceived transgressions.
 - In the event a student cannot fulfill the above obligation, they may ask a member of the student body to act as their mediator.
- Students understand that failure to report indiscretions constitutes an infraction in kind.
- Students should utilize the appropriate reporting channels as outlined in each program's handbook.
- Students' final resource by which to report honor code violations is the Dean of Students.

I understand that signing this document obligates me to abide by and uphold the Honor Code as described above.
